Reference: YEAR-END REPORT (11/27/2012 - 12/31/2012)

Dear Ms. Della Rocco:

Regarding the itemized individual contributions memo entries for contributions transferred from the Congressional Trust JFC, the sum of the memo Schedule A supporting transfers is greater than the amount of the transfers. However, due to an administrative oversight, certain memo entries that were otherwise correctly reported were attributed to a different joint fundraising committee. The affected report, August (07/01/2012 - 07/31/2012), has been amended.

Regarding descriptions of disbursements reported on schedule B, we have amended our report to clarify the purpose of these transactions. "Entertainment Services" refers to musical acts hired to perform at various events, and are not allocable to any federal candidate.

Regarding reimbursements to staff for apparent travel and subsistence in amounts that exceed $500, no further itemization is required.

Regarding disbursements with the purpose "per diem", those disbursements were not made from petty cash and no memo items are required.

Regarding the coordinated expenditures on behalf of Mitt Romney which appear to have been made after the general election date, in each instance the RNC accepted a request by the Romney campaign to make such expenditure in the same period in which the RNC reported the expenditure. Each expenditure was reported accordingly; thus, no amendments are required.

I trust this response will meet your requirements; however, please feel free to contact me if you have any remaining questions.

Sincerely,
Anthony W Parker
Treasurer
Republican National Committee
